NHS & Care Volunteer Responders

NHS and Care Volunteer Responders is a flexible volunteering programme supporting the NHS and adult social care across England. The service is provided by the Royal Voluntary service and GoodSAM.

Support provided by this service includes –

Check In and Chat: A Check In and Chat Volunteer provides telephone support to people in need of a friendly phone call and encouragement to improve mental health and wellbeing.

Check In and Chat Plus: This is a regular chat with the same volunteer over a 6-week period if you feel you are particularly vulnerable. This could be if you have been recently discharged from hospital, have a health condition, are experiencing social isolation or loneliness, have caring responsibilities or are waiting for elective surgery.

Community Response: A volunteer will help with collecting prescriptions, lateral flow tests or shopping for those with a current health need.

Support depends on volunteer availability. If you call the NHS and Care Volunteer Responders phone line, the team are more than happy to talk through how the service works and answer any questions you have. Once you have self-referred, your request will be sent to local volunteers for them to sign up to help if they are available to.

Mental Health Support

UOK

UOK is a network of local community-based services working together to support good mental health and wellbeing in Brighton and Hove. Across Brighton and Hove, there is a range of mental health support available. They know that it can sometimes be difficult to find out information about services, know how to access them and know which ones are right for you. To help you navigate and access UOK services, they have a dedicated 'Central Access Point' team of Community Navigators to respond to your calls and emails. The Community Navigators are a friendly, caring bunch who understand that taking that first steps to make contact for support regarding your mental health can be challenging.

Lines open Mon-Fri, 9am-5pm. Closed Bank Holidays.

Online and Telephone Activities

Royal Voluntary Service - Virtual Village Hall

The Virtual Village Hall is an online activity hub and community, designed to help people stay physically and mentally active, connected and having fun. Sessions are led by expert tutors and some well-known faces and require very little space or equipment. You'll find over 1400 sessions available to take part in, like creative arts and crafts, music and singing, cooking and baking, dance and exercise, and technology skills. Join in with live sessions or catch up on demand later at a time that suits you. All sessions are free. Their live sessions are hosted on the Virtual Village Hall Facebook page. You do not need to have a Facebook profile if you wish to view any of the live sessions, however to comment and/or share the sessions you will need to join Facebook.

In the lead up to Christmas, live events include sock snowmen making, gingerbread baking, a harp request session, mindful mobility Pilates and creative writing.
